

Rise and go straight to the street is the burden that God has given to the eProject Team. Carol Thomson and Philip Youngsiik, together with a small team of street evangelists, are obeying the call of God, with the hope that they will be instrumental in the conversion of many others.

STRAIGHT TO THE STREET IN NORTHERN TASSIE

Earlier this year, Matt Old, from GO International, was invited to train the CrossConnect students to do street evangelism. After three days of in-class training, Matt, together with the staff and students, went straight to the streets of Burnie and Launceston to do street evangelism. Hundreds of tracts were distributed and many of the team members had the opportunity to share the gospel 'one-on-one'. Since that time, the students have had many opportunities to master their new found evangelistic skills, the most recent of which was during their mission trip.

STRAIGHT TO THE STREET IN SYDNEY

In April 2016, Philip Youngsiik, an elder from Wareemba Gospel Church, offered to coordinate the eProject team in Sydney. Since that time, a dedicated team have met together one Saturday a month to do tracting and street evangelism in various parts of Sydney. It is their desire to work together with local churches so that contacts can be followed up effectively. If you would like to invite Philip and the team to your area, or would like to join the next eProject event, please refer to the GLO Facebook page for further details (facebook.com/gloministries).

STRAIGHT TO YOUR STREET

If we truly believe that the gospel is the "power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes" (Rom. 1:16) and that everyone who does not trust in Jesus "will be punished with everlasting destruction and shut out from the presence of the Lord" (2 Thes. 1:9), then we should all agree that there is an urgent need to take the gospel straight to the street.

The only question that still remains is, what will we do about it? Would you like some help to get started? Would you like to help others to take the gospel to the streets of Australia? If so, fill in the slip below and return it to GLO Ministries.

STRAIGHT TO THE Street

"Rise and go to the street called Straight", is the message that God gave to Ananias (Acts 9:11). Ananias obeyed the command of God. As a result, he is remembered for being instrumental in the conversion of the Apostle Paul.
